

Bucket Collection Coordinator

St John's Hospice, an independent charity located within the Hospital of St John and St Elizabeth in St John's Wood, provides specialised palliative care to more than 3,000 terminally-ill patients and their families every year.

This is an exciting opportunity to support our charity using your enthusiasm and free time for bucket collections in London.

The role includes:

- Coordinating organised bucket collections at train stations, supermarkets and shopping centres
- Working with other bucket collectors
- Being the point of contact for the venue on the day
- Counting and banking money (where volunteers are DBS checked)
- Liaising with the charity's Fundraising Administrator

What we offer

- Experience working with a professional organisation
- The opportunity to make a real contribution to our work
- Training and support from the hospice team
- References for future employers
- Time credits are offered which can be spent on many different activities around London

Skills

- Lots of enthusiasm
- Initiative
- A not afraid to ask attitude!
- Good organisation
- Resilience
- Counting and banking money (where volunteers are DBS checked)

Where

- Locations across London which will be pre-agreed.

When

- Between venue opening times which will be pre-agreed.
- A minimum of 4 hours and up to a day, should the volunteer be available to support.